Heather Haberhern Named Senior Vice President of Quality at Health Dimensions Group

MINNEAPOLIS (Aug. 19, 2022)– Health Dimensions Group (HDG), a leading post-acute, long-term care, and senior living management and consulting firm, is pleased to announce that Heather Haberhern has been promoted to Senior Vice President of Quality.

In this new role, Haberhern provides oversight and strategic direction in matters of compliance, quality of life, clinical services, clinical reimbursement, plant operations, safety, culinary and risk management for HDG's portfolio of managed communities. She is responsible for ensuring that residents are cared for in a respectful environment consistent with HDG's values. HDG provides management and oversight for 47 senior living and care communities in seven states, serving more than 2,500 residents and 2,000 team members.

Haberhern has expansive regulatory and reimbursement knowledge from which she creates strategies and processes that improve quality outcomes and optimize revenue. She brings significant expertise in developing clinical programs that improve patient care delivery, managing partnerships with vendors as well as in-house and contract providers, and facilitating training and education to this position. Her background is further bolstered by skills and practical experience in skilled nursing facility department operations, corporate compliance and auditing, staff clinical delivery in skilled nursing and outpatient settings, and business development.

Before joining HDG, Haberhern served several senior care organizations around the country in director-level compliance and reimbursement positions. She began her career as an occupational therapist.

Haberhern earned a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Therapy and a Bachelor of Science in Human Ecology, Food and Nutrition from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

“Providing quality care and service to the residents and families of our managed communities is central to our mission. As Senior Vice President of Quality, Heather Haberhern will help our organization better care for and celebrate seniors in all stages of life,” said Sharon Thole, EVP, Operations. “Heather understands what is needed to ensure a quality experience in our communities to help our residents thrive. We are very excited to promote her to this role.”
